

Preferred Home Care Services

Supported Living Services (SLS) is training for people with developmental disabilities to increase independence. Supported Living Services are for children, youth and adults.

Supported Living Services (SLS) for Children:

SLS for children is provided in a family-style home with up to three (3) other persons, outside of the biological or adoptive home, that helps with community integration.

Supported Living Services (SLS) for Adults:

Person's own home

The community, like at their local store or library

Licensed community residential setting

Examples of service areas include:

- Eating and preparing food
- Personal grooming and cleaning
- Social and adaptive skills
- Communication
- Community participation and mobility
- Health care, leisure and recreation
- Household chores
- Interpersonal skills
- Money management
- Increase of positive behavior and reduction or elimination of challenging behavior
- Sensory and motor development